

A Private Three or Five Day Healing Immersion on Hawai'i Island

One Woman • Held by the Elements • Deep Remembrance

There are moments in a woman's life when she is being called to return to her sacred self.
Something within her is asking to be heard.
She may feel it as a longing for quiet. For salt water upon her skin, bare feet upon the Earth, and space to rest without being needed.

Sometimes we need to step beyond the familiar rhythms of our days and allow ourselves to be held long enough for the layers to soften—for the body to speak, for grief to find movement, and for our own knowing to become clear again.

Wise Woman Alchemy is a private, one-on-one healing immersion with me on Hawai'i Island. Over three or five days, we follow what emerges, guided by your unfolding and supported by the jungle, the ocean, and the elements.

An invitation to remember the Wise Woman within—and make room for the wisdom she carries.

A simple cabin tucked into the Hawaiian jungle becomes your sanctuary, with nourishing foods from the land and spacious time to rest between our work together.
Your healing becomes our map. We follow the threads that emerge through your dreams, intuitive homeopathic exploration, ancestral remembrance, and the wisdom of your own body—allowing each day to unfold around what asks for attention.
Woven throughout our time together is the sea. I will accompany you into the salt water, creating space to float, feel, and receive. What surfaces in our sessions can find room for movement and integration, held within the gentle rhythm of the ocean.

The Exchange

$2,222 for 3 days
$3333 for 5 days

Your private Wise Woman Alchemy immersion includes:

Simple jungle cabin accommodations and nourishing, grounding meals.
One-on-one healing work, intuitively guided through homeopathic exploration, sacred essences, dream journaling, sound, and frequency.
Womb and Wise Woman alchemy, including trituration journeying.
Guided ocean immersion and time in respectful relationship with Hawai'i's volcanic landscape and the presence of Pele.
Spacious time for rest and integration.

Travel to and from Hawai'i Island and personal expenses are separate.

Because of the depth and intimacy of this experience, I will offer these immersions to one woman at a time.

Before confirming your retreat, we will connect personally to feel into whether this experience is aligned for both of us.
